

Social Work Position

Physician's Choice Hospice - Oklahoma City Market

Physician's Choice Hospice is an Oklahoma-licensed, Medicare certified, healthcare organization and it is our Mission to assist patients and their families with the inevitable symptoms of a terminal illness. Our goal is to improve the quality of a patient's last days and to offer comfort and dignity. High quality healthcare is important at every stage of life and we consider it a privilege to walk alongside those who are facing terminal illness, coping with grief, or seeking to learn more about these profound experiences. The interdisciplinary team of physicians, nurses, certified home health aides, chaplains, social workers, and counselors help patients and families prepare for, understand, and make informed decisions at the end of life and throughout the grieving process.

Physician's Choice Hospice is currently seeking a Full-Time MSW or LMSW for our OKC, OK area. Applicant must possess a Master's in Social Work and salary depends on work experience.

Duties include: Making home and nursing facility visits, admission assessments, pre-bereavement assessments and attending required IDG (interdisciplinary) meetings. Applicant needs reliable transportation to travel to their assigned service area. Knowledge needed of community resources on how to make appropriate referrals to community and other relevant agencies for psychosocial services, and ability to coordinate services. Applicant must have capacity needed to independently assess the psychosocial functioning and needs of our patients and their family members and to formulate/implement a treatment plan by forging alliance with the patient, family and interdisciplinary treatment team. Capacity needed to provide psychosocial treatment to hospice patients with diversified backgrounds.

Benefits include: Medical, Dental, Vision, Life Insurance, Simple IRA and PTO.

It is important to note that we use computer technology to do our charting and to communicate with each other regarding patient care. If interested in working for a growing company please submit resume or apply online at www.physicianschoicetehospice.com.
