Student Liability (Individuals)

Start Out Right, Protect Your Future

You’re studying and working towards a great career in a field you love, but even field practice can put you at risk of being sued by someone dissatisfied with an outcome.

Students covered under the professional liability policy of their school also need their own individual coverage. Large organizations, such as schools, may find it necessary to focus on their organizational needs first, and not on the needs of the individual student social worker. Your school’s coverage may not necessarily protect you individually from risk, and you may be liable for your own negligence.

You need professional liability coverage. We can provide you with experienced legal defense and coverage for settlements or damages.

NASW Assurance Services manages insurance protection for NASW members, including students, with your needs in mind, advocating for affordable rates and coverage. NASW member insurance programs are overseen by social workers, exclusively for social workers.

You are investing heavily in a career that will help others. Let us help you protect your future.

You’re studying and working towards a great career in a field you love and insurance is probably the last thing you are thinking about as you prepare for your career.

You may be thinking you don’t need insurance or that your school already has you covered for malpractice. But you need to know its important to have your own coverage – as a student you can still be sued and you may not have enough coverage through your school, if any at all.

Also, you know the importance of protecting your health and other aspects of your life. Its hard starting out and you don’t want an unforeseen event making it harder.

NASW Assurance Services has advocated for years to keep premiums low and affordable. We’ve learned how to protect our student members in both their professional and personal lives. Our programs are tailored for social workers, no matter if they have been in the profession for years or just starting out.

- Student Social Work Malpractice Insurance
- Life, Disability, and Long-Term Care Insurance
- Major Medical Health, Dental, and Vision Insurance

You are investing heavily into your career, let us help protect you!
